Hoosiers Had an Off Day.

Yesterday was an off day in the Amerian Association and the Indianapolis team lid not play. It was just as well as the ocsiers' chances of winning at St. Paul are very small. The team is crippled and ut of sorts and an even break in the games be played at St. Paul and Minneapolis ld satisfy the fans. When the Hoosiers urn home they may have a chance to get oack into the winning current.

SIR THOMAS STOPS RACING ON LEARNING OF POPE'S DEATH.

In the Trial Brush Shamrock III Ber Shamrock I, Although She Lost Her Jib Topsail Sheet.

ATLANTIC HIGHLANDS, N. J., July 20. -Ten miles an hour for thirty miles, windward and leeward, was the rattling pace set by Sir Thomas Lipton's cup challenger in a race with Shamrock I in the waters of the international race course off Sandy Hook lightship to-day. The challenger's exact time for thirty miles was 2:59:20, very nearly record time for a cup event and on a par with Reliance's splendid performance off Newport in June when the American yacht covered thirty miles in less than three hours. Shamrock III's windward leg to-A shift in the wind after a start made it possible for her to fetch from the starting fly, netted three runs, one more than Philline to within two miles of the turn in quicker than if she had to beat all the way. | the Philadelphia American League team and Her reach of fifteen miles in 1:09:08, at an average of rising thirteen knots, is near the record for a cup race. Despite her splendid O. Sullivan, Spooner, Two-base hit— performance the beat Shamrock I by only schaefer, Oyler. Home runs—Jackson, one minute and twenty seconds elapsed proper. Double play—Huggins to Schaefer performance the beat Shamrock I by only two minutes by the parting of her jib topsail sheet when she was four miles from the finish 'int. The race was sailed in a splendid wind, rising from ten knots at the start to fifteen at the finish, and a good part of the time the yachts were dragging their lee rails through the froth from under their bows. The summary: Start. Sir Thomas immediately stopped the racing and to-night the Erin's ensign is at half mast in tribute to the memory of Pope Leo XIII.

CONSTITUTION SAILED WELL.

She Is Rapidly Becoming a Dangerous Rival of the Reliance. NEWPORT, R. I., July 20 .- The Constitution is rapidly becoming a dangerous rival of the Reliance for the honor of defending the trophy, for the older boat defeated the new one in to-day's run of thirty-seven miles, the third of the New York Yacht Club's cruise from New London, by 1 minute and 29 seconds, availing herself of her time allowance, estimated at about 2 minutes and 17 seconds. This is the second time on the present cruise that the Constitution has won from her rival on time allowance, and while the victory on the first occasion from Glencove to New Haven was due in some measure to changeable breezes the conditions to-day were as fair for one as for the other. The two yachts sailed on practically even terms for nearly ten miles along the southern Rhode Island shore, with sheets well flattened, and it was not until half the course had been cov- Kissinger. QUIET IN WYOMING.

Militia Went to the Assistance of Sheriff Fenton and Prisoner. CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 20 .- The Basin light battery of State troops, ordered out from the county seat of Big Horn county to assist Sheriff Fenton in transferring Jim McCloud, charged with the murder of Ben from Thermopolis to Basin, reached Thermopolis at 7 o'clock this morning, after an all-night ride. People are leaving for their homes, and it is now believed that no attempt will be made to intercept Sheriff Fenton while he is taking Mc-Cloud to Basin. Quiet prevails at Basin, the scene of the double lynching yesterday. The people are arranging to bury Walters and German, the murderers, in the potters' field, and the body of Deputy Prince, who was killed by the mob, will be sent away

Governor Chatterton to-day declared he would call of the prosecuting attorney of FAVORITE IN lynching at Basin yesterday. "A stop must be put to such lawlessness in this State," he said.

MAMIE WORTH DIDN'T GET A CALL IN THE SEAGULL STAKES.

Event Captured by Astarita, with Futurita Second-Many Trainers Fined-Ft. Erie Results.

NEW YORK, July 20.-The Mexican stables' Astarita, with Hicks up, won the Seagull stakes at Brighton Beach to-day. The Bahtampton filly opened at 6 to 5 in the betting, but so little was thought of her chances that her price drifted back to 2 to 1. She was carrying the heavy impost of 121 pounds, and handled it in a clever fashion. Getting off in front and gradually increasing her lead to the finish she won easily by two lengths from Futurita, who was one and a half lengths from the 50-to-1 shot, Stamping Ground. The 7-to-10 favorite, Mamie Worth, was badly interfered with and finished back in the ruck.

LANGLEY'S AIRSHIP.

It Will Be Launched Into Space at

Great Speed .-WIDEWATER, Va., July 20 .- The work on Professor Langley's airship, which was suspended Saturday, was resumed with vigor to-day by Smithsonian experts and mechanics, and they have nearly completed the launching car, which is to dash across a track seventy feet and cast the airship into space. The car will be sprung from its fastenings by twelve heavy steel springs orty feet long. It will be discharged from two brass piston boxes, and a high velocity will be attained at the other end. Having launched the airship, the car will be held on the rails.

THE DRIFT OF POLITICS. Dan W. Simms, of Lafavette, who is the city to appear before the State Tax Board, brings the word that all is not harmonious in his city toward the candidacy of J. Frank Hanly for the Republican nomination for Governor. "Hanly's candidacy is attracting a good deal of attention," said Mr. Simms last evening at the Claypool, "but at the same time it is arousing some little local antagonism. The Lafayette Sunday Times went after Hanly in its yesterday's issue in a vigorous fashion. The Times is independent politically, but, nevertheless, I imagine Hanly and his friends would prefer to have its good will. The Times takes the position that Hanly should not have entered the race for Governor when there was one Lafavette man already in the field as a candidate for state office-Dan Storms. "No. I don't know what effect the attitude of the Times will have. As a personal friend of Hanly, and as a matter of local pride, of course, I would like to see him the nominge of his party. But after he's nominated," added Mr. Simms, with a W. R. Koehler, 6-0, 6-1; F. Sutphin beat R. | laugh, "I'll have to do all I can to defeat him for election.'

Mr. Simms still refuses to entertain the proposition of becoming a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination. "I'm too busy to think of such a thing," he said. "Besides, a man, to be a candidate Diehl beat Miss Weimer and Mr. Isham, for Governor, should be either a politician or a statesman, and I'm neither."

In spite of his declaration that he is not a politician, Mr. Simms has always kept close in touch with political affairs, and it will be remembered that he was one of the guard of honor that escorted William I Bryan to Greenfield a few weeks ago for his speech there. However, he is evidently in earnest when he says he will not consider the governorship proposition, and the Indiana Democracy will have to look else-where for its candidate next year. Since the conclusion of the famous Chase ease in Benton county Mr. Simms has been the Canadian side of Lake Erie, and he is big fish," he said, "and laid in a fine line of veracity in the vicinity in which I now reide,' as we ask the witness sometimes."

x x x "Hosea" Hawkins, of this city, former secretary of the Democratic state committee, is not enthused over the Jefferson League. When he was asked his opinion of the new organization, last night, he replied: "Well, I do not know a great deal about it, but, as I said a few days ago, the fact that Flavius Van Vorhis and Joe Cheadle are the prime movers in the league, and were the principal speakers at the meeting at which it was formed, does not recommend the organization to me. I don't regard them as the kind of Democrats that can lend strength to any kind of a party organization. As a matter of fact, Van Vorhis is not a Democrat; he will say he is not if you ask him. He is a Democrat as long as the party platform and candidates suit him, but in reality he is a free lance." Thus does the ardent and enthusiastic Flavius J. get it in the region of his Adam's

In spite of the statement of Frank Bowers, of this city, that he was not considering the question of becoming a candidate for The following trainers were fined $200 for | the position of secretary of the Republican being late in arriving at the paddock with state committee, it is understood that his friends are starting a quiet movement in his behalf. Mr. Bowers made the state-W. C. Daly, James Frayling, W. Lakeland, ment some weeks ago and it is altogether probable that he has found good and sufficient reasons to change his mind. One of his friends said yesterday that Mr. Bow-J. B. Boyle, H. Mason, F. L. Graves and E. ers's name would be brought before the state committee, unless he positively for-bids it, and he also expressed the belief that Mr. Bowers would secure the desired berth. Bowers will doubtless have the support of the well-known Republicans that compose the crowd known as the "Knights of Pythias crowd"-a crowd, by the way, that has on several occasions proved a formidable factor in Republican state poli-

> This secretaryship proposition is worrying several good Republicans, it seems, although all who are understood to be candidates are doing their work very quietly and apparently do not desire to attract any attention. Among those mentioned in connection with the place, in addition to Mr. Bowers, are Senator C. C. Lyons, of Fairmount; Will A. Hough, of Greenfield; A. his friends are insisting on making him at least a receptive candidate. Besides these men, it is intimated that there are one or two aspirants for the secretaryship whose names are being zealously kept secret for the present and that there may be a little surprise party when their candi-dacies are announced later. xxx

> H. S. Robinson, of Bluffton, who was at the Grand last night; says that all questions of politics in Wells county have been lost sight of since the county was furnished its big murder sensation a few days ago when John Terrell, a well-known and wealthy farmer, shot and killed his son-inlaw, a young man named Wolf, under tragic circumstances that have beeen rehearsed in all the papers of the State. "Sympathy seems to be with Terrell in > the unfortunate affair," said Mr. Robinson, "although it is realized that his crime was in a measure cold blooded. He had great provocation. Every one knows that. And he was evidently laboring under a terrible mental strain when he committed the murder, for after shooting Wolf as he passed his home. Terrell jumped into a bugggy to follow him to Petroleum and drove the three miles with the horse at a run while he stood up in the buggy and flourished his shotgun. "Terrell is taking the situation rather coolly. He has had his safe and desk brought to the jail, and is transacting his business affairs from his cell as if nothing > out of the ordinary had occurred. His trial is set for September. "There really is little or nothing going on politically in our county," continued Mr. Robinson, when a question brought him back to that subject. "There is some little talk that Postmaster Sharpe, of our city, will be a candidate for the Republican congressional nomination against Cromer, but I don't know what there is in it." WANT A SCHOOLHOUSE.

One Hundred Citizens Living Near Ball Park Hold a Meeting.

About one hundred citizens living in the neighborhood of the baseball park held a meeting last night at Schwegman's Hall, No. 3114 East Washington street, to devise some means of getting a schoolhouse in that locality. J. S. Walton was chairman of the meeting and A. C. Ward was secre-

This means that Captain Cheatham will not be here until the end of that time.

A twenty-six pound Mississippi catfish was caught in White river north of Broad Ripple Sunday by Carl J. Boynton, North Alabama street. The fish was caught on a trot line which Mr. Boynton put into the river in front of Haverstick's camp. It is the biggest catch ever made in that part of the river. In fact, no Indianapolis fisherman has had better luck this year. or luck that comes any ways near equaling Mr. Boynton's.

A grip belonging to ex-Governor Taylor, of Kentucky, containing $2,800 in money and negotiable paper, was lost Saturday night. It was returned by Verne Hutto and Mr. Taylor rewarded the boy by giving him $25. Mr. Taylor and Charles Finley, exsecretary of state of Kentucky, left the grip containing the money and papers on the sidewalk in front of the Denison House when they caught a car to go to the former's home. Hutto found it later and the papers showed that it belonged to Taylor and it was returned to him. Work on the extension of the water works system to Irvington will be begun in
